

1. advisory group	a group responsible for advising and guiding governments in the development of policy and legislation	17. policy	a strategy developed to address a particular area of concern
2. AQIS	a government body whose main role is to protect Australia's agriculture and environment from exotic pests and diseases	18. preservatives	chemicals added to food to prevent spoiling
3. audit	a review and examination of records and activities by an independent party to assess whether set procedures have been followed	19. product recall	a request to return to the maker a batch or production run of a product, usually due to the discovery of safety issues
4. bait advertising	the advertising of a product at a price to attract a customer while intending to supply a more expensive product instead	20. protocol	a formal set of rules and descriptions of information
5. ballast water	water that is carried on board a ship to stabilise it, with concerns about the marine organisms in the water harming the environment	21. quarantine	activities directed at preventing or controlling the introduction and spread of pests and diseases
6. code of practice	a set of written operating requirements for specified activities	22. referral selling	the practice whereby a consumer is persuaded to buy goods or services on the understanding that they will receive a benefit for referring others to that business
7. codex alimentarius	an internationally recognised standard that includes codes of practice relating to foods, food production and food safety	23. self-regulated	a business or group of businesses that establish a code of practice that controls their operation
8. EHO	a person usually employed by local or state governments to advise on and enforce public health	24. subsidy	direct aid given to food producers
9. extortion	the illegal use of force or threats to receive property or money	25. tariff	a tax imposed on imported goods
10. food safety program	a written document that identifies all food safety hazards in a food business, arrangements to control each hazard and supervision of the controls	26. value-added	the processing of products so that their selling price is higher than that of the raw materials from which they were made
11. food standards code	a document that sets out conditions that must be met before food is sold
12. free trade agreement	an agreement between countries to trade without the use of trade barriers such as tariffs, subsidies and embargoes
13. FSANZ	a independent agency that works with the government to achieve a safe food supply by developing food standards and codes of practice, and standardising food law
14. genetically modified	food that contains material derived from an organism that has had its genetic material altered in some way other than by conventional breeding
15. legislation	a law passed by government that describes what is legal in specific situations
16. microbial	a tiny life form		