

13 Multiple choice questions

A+
100%

1. identifying harms to individuals and society and implementing strategies to minimise these harms
 - a. socialisation
 - b. CORRECT: harm minimisation
 - c. community
 - d. adoption

2. a series of stages in an individual's life, each of which brings them closer to adulthood and independence
 - a. adoption
 - b. lifestyle diseases
 - c. literature review
 - d. CORRECT: life span development

3. the legal process where all legal rights and responsibilities are transferred from birth parents to adoptive parents
 - a. survey
 - b. community
 - c. CORRECT: adoption
 - d. socialisation

4. diseases passed to a person from another person (e.g. head lice and measles), insects/animals (e.g. mosquitoes and bats) and the environment (e.g. via water and waste)
 - a. socialisation
 - b. CORRECT: communicable diseases
 - c. lifestyle diseases
 - d. community

5. expectations placed on a person as a result of the roles they assume, such as being a parent, an employee, a wife or husband, son or daughter, or president of the Parents and Citizens Association
 - a. literature review
 - b. socialisation
 - c. lifestyle diseases
 - d. CORRECT: multiple-role expectations

6. a set of formally prepared questions that seek information on a person's knowledge, beliefs, feelings, opinions, likes or dislikes; it is filled in by the researcher after asking the respondent questions
- a. surrogate
 - b. CORRECT: survey
 - c. community
 - d. adoption
7. examples of quantitative data that relate to a study of groups in a community
- a. community
 - b. CORRECT: demographic
 - c. surrogate
 - d. adoption
8. a set of formally prepared questions that seek information on a person's knowledge, beliefs, feelings, opinions, likes or dislikes; it is completed by the respondent
- a. demographic
 - b. adoption
 - c. CORRECT: questionnaire
 - d. surrogate
9. a secondary research method involving a search and evaluation of existing knowledge on a particular topic
- a. questionnaire
 - b. CORRECT: literature review
 - c. survey
 - d. lifestyle diseases
10. a group of people within society, who have a common background or shared interests and who may live in a similar area
- a. survey
 - b. CORRECT: community
 - c. adoption
 - d. surrogate

11. the lifelong process by which individuals learn and recognise patterns of behaviour expected of them by society
 - a. harm minimisation
 - b. CORRECT: socialisation
 - c. adoption
 - d. surrogate

12. a group of diseases attributed to an individual's way of life, including diet, exercise, weight-to-height ratio (obesity), cigarette use and alcohol intake; e.g. cardiovascular disease, diabetes, lung cancer and bowel cancer
 - a. literature review
 - b. questionnaire
 - c. CORRECT: lifestyle diseases
 - d. communicable diseases

13. a woman who becomes pregnant on behalf of a couple who cannot have a child
 - a. questionnaire
 - b. community
 - c. survey
 - d. CORRECT: surrogate