

11 Ancient History 1 History, Archaeology & Science - Part 1 Study online at quizlet.com/_22s9dt

1. anthropologist	one who studies the human species, our physical characteristics and our unique non-biological characteristics, or culture
2. archaeology	the study of ancient things, usually by excavation
3. archive	documents or records
4. aristocratic	of noble birth
5. artefact	any object made and used by human beings
6. barrows	prehistoric burial mounds
7. basalt	dark green or brown volcanic rock
8. capital	the top of a column or pillar
9. carbonised	burnt to carbon, like charcoal
10. catapult	ancient engine for discharging stones, worked by levers and ropes
11. cist	prehistoric stone tomb
12. concession	permission given by a government to an excavation team to conduct work on an archaeological site
13. conservative	belonging to the older, aristocratic families of Athens
^{14.} Cyclopaean walls	large, uncut blocks of stone thought by later Greeks to have been built by giant, one- eyed Cyclops
15. debauchery	perverted behaviour
16. debris	ruins, rubbish
16. debris 17. decipher	ruins, rubbish decode or interpret symbols of writing by finding the key or code that gives a clue to the meaning decode or interpret symbols of writing by finding the key or code that gives a clue to
17. decipher	decode or interpret symbols of writing by finding the key or code that gives a clue to the meaning
17. decipher 18. detritus 19. divine	decode or interpret symbols of writing by finding the key or code that gives a clue to the meaning disintegrated material
17. decipher 18. detritus 19. divine retribution	decode or interpret symbols of writing by finding the key or code that gives a clue to the meaning disintegrated material the punishment of the gods
17. decipher 18. detritus 19. divine retribution 20. eponymous	decode or interpret symbols of writing by finding the key or code that gives a clue to the meaning disintegrated material the punishment of the gods giving a name to a place or institution referring to the origin, classification and characteristics of particular groups of people, based on factors such as language
17. decipher 18. detritus 19. divine retribution 20. eponymous 21. ethnic	decode or interpret symbols of writing by finding the key or code that gives a clue to the meaning disintegrated material the punishment of the gods giving a name to a place or institution referring to the origin, classification and characteristics of particular groups of people, based on factors such as language and race the process of growth and development generally accompanied by increasing
17. decipher 18. detritus 19. divine retribution 20. eponymous 21. ethnic	decode or interpret symbols of writing by finding the key or code that gives a clue to the meaning disintegrated material the punishment of the gods giving a name to a place or institution referring to the origin, classification and characteristics of particular groups of people, based on factors such as language and race the process of growth and development generally accompanied by increasing complexity
17. decipher 18. detritus 19. divine retribution 20. eponymous 21. ethnic	decode or interpret symbols of writing by finding the key or code that gives a clue to the meaning disintegrated material the punishment of the gods giving a name to a place or institution referring to the origin, classification and characteristics of particular groups of people, based on factors such as language and race the process of growth and development generally accompanied by increasing complexity skill

26. fossil	plant or animal remains preserved in rocks; the soft parts disappear and the hard parts remain, preserved by minerals infiltrating them
27. frankincense	aromatic gum resin from trees used for burning as incense