26 Multiple choice questions

1. a set of written operating requirements for specified activities
   a. codex alimentarius
   b. CORRECT: code of practice
   c. extortion
   d. quarantine

2. a law passed by government that describes what is legal in specific situations
   a. audit
   b. CORRECT: legislation
   c. EHO
   d. extortion

3. a document that sets out conditions that must be met before food is sold
   a. product recall
   b. code of practice
   c. food safety program
   d. CORRECT: food standards code

4. a written document that identifies all food safety hazards in a food business, arrangements to control each hazard and supervision of the controls
   a. product recall
   b. food standards code
   c. advisory group
   d. CORRECT: food safety program

5. an agreement between countries to trade without the use of trade barriers such as tariffs, subsidies and embargoes
   a. referral selling
   b. CORRECT: free trade agreement
   c. preservatives
   d. self-regulated
6. a tax imposed on imported goods
   a. policy
   b. CORRECT: tariff
   c. audit
   d. AQIS

7. activities directed at preventing or controlling the introduction and spread of pests and diseases
   a. extortion
   b. microbial
   c. tariff
   d. CORRECT: quarantine

8. a government body whose main role is to protect Australia's agriculture and environment from exotic pests and diseases
   a. tariff
   b. EHO
   c. audit
   d. CORRECT: AQIS

9. chemicals added to food to prevent spoiling
   a. CORRECT: preservatives
   b. extortion
   c. quarantine
   d. legislation

10. the illegal use of force or threats to receive property or money
    a. CORRECT: extortion
    b. legislation
    c. tariff
    d. protocol
11. the processing of products so that their selling price is higher than that of the raw materials from which they were made
   a. subsidy
   b. preservatives
   c. CORRECT: value-added
   d. audit

12. a strategy developed to address a particular area of concern
   a. tariff
   b. CORRECT: policy
   c. subsidy
   d. protocol

13. an internationally recognised standard that includes codes of practice relating to foods, food production and food safety
   a. CORRECT: codex alimentarius
   b. code of practice
   c. referral selling
   d. bait advertising

14. a request to return to the maker a batch or production run of a product, usually due to the discovery of safety issues
   a. microbial
   b. policy
   c. protocol
   d. CORRECT: product recall

15. a formal set of rules and descriptions of information
   a. microbial
   b. policy
   c. extortion
   d. CORRECT: protocol
16. a group responsible for advising and guiding governments in the development of policy and legislation
   a. extortion
   b. CORRECT: advisory group
   c. AQIS
   d. legislation

17. the practice whereby a consumer is persuaded to buy goods or services on the understanding that they will receive a benefit for referring others to that business
   a. quarantine
   b. FSANZ
   c. preservatives
   d. CORRECT: referral selling

18. the advertising of a product at a price to attract a customer while intending to supply a more expensive product instead
   a. tariff
   b. legislation
   c. extortion
   d. CORRECT: bait advertising

19. a business or group of businesses that establish a code of practice that controls their operation
   a. CORRECT: self-regulated
   b. value-added
   c. ballast water
   d. legislation

20. food that contains material derived from an organism that has had its genetic material altered in some way other than by conventional breeding
   a. ballast water
   b. referral selling
   c. value-added
   d. CORRECT: genetically modified 21. a review and examination of records and activities by an independent party to assess whether set procedures have been followed
   a. AQIS
   b. CORRECT: audit
   c. tariff
   d. FSANZ

22. water that is carried on board a ship to stabilise it, with concerns about the marine organisms in the water harming the environment
   a. self-regulated
   b. value-added
   c. CORRECT: ballast water
   d. quarantine

23. a independent agency that works with the government to achieve a safe food supply by developing food standards and codes of practice, and standardising food law
   a. EHO
   b. CORRECT: FSANZ
   c. audit
   d. AQIS

24. a tiny life form
   a. CORRECT: microbial
   b. protocol
   c. policy
   d. tariff

25. a person usually employed by local or state governments to advise on and enforce public health
   a. CORRECT: EHO
   b. audit
   c. AQIS
   d. FSANZ
26. direct aid given to food producers
   a. audit
   b. policy
   c. CORRECT: subsidy
   d. tariff